Holy Mother

Place it: Derby Wouldn't be the same without our beloved Phoenix Hill Tavern original home of the tramp stamp and bubble-machine karaoke. Tonight's Mother of All Derby Eve Parties is a classic.

The headliners are Crossfade and the Villbillies. Crossfade is a rising mainstream metal band from South Carolina that works for Columbia Records. Louisville's Villebillies might be the bigger draw, however. The band's country gravy hip-hop is perfect for Derby, and it never puts on a bad show.

The Party is indoors and out, with gates at 5 p.m. Admission is $15. There'll also be a dance party on The Deck Bar and Derby-oke in The Living Room. PHT is at 644 Baxter Ave. It will be open until 6 a.m. That's not a typo.

The Villbillies will perform at 7 and Crossfade at 8:30 on the outdoor stage. Inside, the Pygmies will headline The Saloon at 10, followed by Blowfly at 2 a.m. Speed of Sound and the Acoustipimps will be in The Roof Garden at 8:30 p.m. and 1:30 a.m., respectively. King Sonic and High Noon will be in The Taproom starting at 8.
